

39. It's a Fine Life (Reprise)

WARNING: FAGIN: Then keep quiet, will yer. All this violence.

CUE: SIKES: Tell 'em all about us would you?

Slow (in 2)  $\text{♩} = 96$

SIKES:

Tell 'em about us would you?

NANCY:

I won't stand by and see it done, Bill.

FAGIN:

Why Nancy, you're wonderful tonight.

Such talent! What an actress!

5 (CUE: FAGIN: What an actress!)

NANCY:

Am I? Take care I don't overdo it. 'Cos if I do, I'm going to put my mark on some of you, and I don't care if I hang for it!

SIKES:

You? Do you know who you are, and what you are?

NANCY: (hysterically)

Ah, yes, I know all about it. You don't have to tell me!

SIKES:

A fine one for the boy to make a friend of, you are!

7 (CUE: SIKES: . . . to make a friend of, you are!)

NANCY:

Lord help me, I am, and I wish I'd of been struck down dead before I lent a hand in bringing him back here. After tonight, he's a liar and a thief and that's all bad. Ain't that enough for you, without beating him to death..

FAGIN:

Come, come Nancy, we must have civil words. Civil words, Bill.

(CUE: FAGIN: Civil words, Bill.) (OUT CUE: SIKES: It's your living, ain't it?)

9

NANCY:

Civil words! Yes! You deserve them from me! I was out on the streets for you when I was a child half his age, and I've been in the same trade, the same service for fifteen years since and don't you forget it!

SIKES:

Well, what if you have? It's your living ain't it?
